Foreign Language Option (Please note that ISSR teaches French and Mandarin Chinese Foreign Language)
French		Mandarin Chinese		English as a Second Language

- ESL (English as a Second Language) tuition incurs an additional fee during the first year of attendance. Should ESL tuition continue thereafter, this is free of charge.
- It is generally compulsory for students who enrol on the Part-Time programme to study ESL although exceptions may be made on a case-by-case basis.
- Any student – dependent upon the recommendations made by the assessor at the point of initial testing – may be required to attend ESL classes.
- ESL tuition continues only for as long as the ESL teacher considers it necessary. Thereafter, the student will return to French / Mandarin or whichever subject / activity has been simultaneously timetabled at the points where ESL has been scheduled. Please note that, prior to the final decision, other teachers in mainstream subjects may also be consulted as to the appropriateness of a student discontinuing ESL.
- The focus of ISSR is consistently on the academic welfare and progress of the student, and the School may at times adapt programmes of study in accordance with that which is of the greatest benefit to the student. Consequently, a student who – at the outset – was not deemed to be in need of ESL tuition, but who subsequently, displays difficulties with the linguistic aspect of any subject, may be required to receive full or partial ESL support.
